The Institution of Engineers (India)

GUJARAT STATE CENTER

Report

The Institution of Engineers (India)
GUJARAT STATE CENTRE

WORLD ENVIRONMENT DAY | 05 JUNE
Green Economy: Does it include you?

On 05 June 2012, 0600 – 0700 pm at Bhaikaka Bhavan, Law Garden, Ahmedabad 380006

Gujarat State Centre of the Institution of Engineers (India), celebrated the World Environment day on 5th June 2012 at Bhaikaka Bhavan, Ahmedabad. The lectures were arranged on the UN suggested theme "Green Economy: Does it include YOU?".

The program was convened and anchored by Shri Bharat Patel, Imm Past Chairman

IEI, GSC. He also gave a brief of why this day is celebrated and how 'Environment' very important in day to day life of every human.

The Jt. Hon Secretary of IEI, GSC, Shri Shyam Varghese welcomed the guest and read out the bio-data of the speaker Dr. Ing Anupam Singh who is the professor at the PDP University.

The other degnitories on the program was Ms Gauri Wagenaar, Ex head for Gujarat, Office of the Netherlands in India and she is also the environment consultant.

Dr. Anupam Singh mentioned through his power point presentation, explained what is Green Economy all about and how it affects all of us in day to day life and how can each of us contribute to the sustainable green economy which is most suitable to our country with wide diversity geographically. He also sited examples of Europe and how they have the sustainable model in the Green economy and what could be done here in India where we have a large population and also underdeveloped area. The pace at which the urbanization is moving also need to take care of the environment and what role is there for the authorities to play.

Ms Gauri and Bharat Patel also stressed upon the students community to think out of the box for the newer ideas which are in line with the green economy concepts and are sustainable in nature to be developed for our country.

There was a very good interactive session by the students with the speakers, there were more than 18 participants, attending the function.

Shri Shyam Varghese proposed the vote of thanks.